The interior of the tube is rough, and is greased a little, o insure the bringing up a portion of the horson into which it plunges. If the bottom is soft med, it is a tolerable indication that no violent corrent exists to disturb the repose of the heavy table which will sink into its substance acaly monster in its rapid descent, the load would be detached and the depth recorded some we miles less, perhaps, than that to which he mysterious conveyor of market reports, I we-messages and declarations of war will subsequently sink. From the well-estate certain comparatively moderate depth in the rea, there may be apprehended if the danger of any ser ous mistake from this cause.

The project for telegraphing directly scross the Atlantic, in one single circuit, is a magnifcent o is, and one the success of which enunot be to e greetly desired. The present expedirounded, and is one of the noble enterprises it which our naval vessels are most legitimately employed in time of peace. The distance adout 1:10 miles allowing for the probable inequalities of the bottom; and when we reflect on the difficulties experienced in communicating through long circuits above the surface and the immense amount of property which will be endered valueless in the depths of the ocean by a complete fracture at any single point, the greatness of the undertaking becomeplainly : pparent. We are assured, however, that the company having the enterprise in hand will weigh well all considerations affecting the peculiar circumstances of the case, and with which so binarine telescriphing is by no means the slowest, it is not at all impossible that a very few years may find us in a familiar chat with our cousins in Great Britain through the medium of a cluster of wires buried thousands of feet below the deepest dive of the finny

GOVEL NOR OF KANSAS. - The N Y. Tribune Washing on Correspondent writes Aug 1st:

Mr Geary has not yet accepted the Gurer norship of Kansas. He has returned home to Baltimors, and will not accept the office natil he has another interview with the President, which will be on Tuesday next.

More Bolting.-Er-Lieut. Gov. Myere of Ohio, has declared for Fremont and Dayton.-The Sanducky (Obio) Register publishes a letter from Mr. M. repudiating all further connection with the "Democracy" which proposes to elect Mr. Buchanan. This defection will cause a great sensation among the democratic leaders in particular, since Mr. Myers has been one of the leading men of that party, in Ohio, and in north-western Ohio his influence is very great. He was formerly editor of the Toledo Republican, a democratic journal.
